

JUL 25 1959

Approved For Release 2000/05/24 : CIA-RDP75-00001R000400280016-7

STATINTL

Front Page Edit Page Other Page

Date:

Philip Savory To Succeed Kearns In Morning Press Bureau in Capital

MONTPELIER — Announcement is made of the appointment of Philip P. Savory, a Bennington newsman, as head of the Morning Press Bureau in Montpelier.

He will succeed William F. Kearns Jr. who will take up his new duties as deputy commissioner of institutions for the state on Sept. 1.

In making the announcement The Burlington Free Press and Rutland Herald newspapers that operate the bureau, stated Savory will report to his new post on Aug. 17.

Currently assistant editor and editorial writer for the Evening Banner in Bennington, Savory was formerly employed by the Central Intelligence Agency in Washington, D.C. A native of Atchison, Kan., he is a graduate of the School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University, in Washington, completing his studies there in 1951.

Savory, 29, served with the CIA from 1951 until 1957, and was then employed by the Banner as chief of the newspaper's branch office in Hoosick Falls, N.Y.

In 1958 the Banner transferred Savory to its Bennington office where he served as staff reporter and later as assistant editor and editorial writer.

Philip Savory

He is married to the former Harriet Saylor of Trenton, Ontario, Canada. The Savorys have two children and are planning to move to Montpelier.